Wolf-Thomsen Names Linked in Marriage

Elegant simplicity marked the beautiful mid-afternoon wedding ceremony at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church when Miss Judith Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf, 21804 Halldale Ave., plighted her marriage vows with Samuel B. Thomsen of Arlington, Virginia. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thomsen of Hawthorne.

A background of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Mimi Anderson, at the organ, as the 200 wedding guests assembled. Officiating at the double ring ceremony were the Rev. H. C. Coke of Santa Barbara and Rev. Hugh Percy, pastor of St. Andrew's.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a ballerina length gown of white peau de soie designed with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Her illusion bridal veil cascaded from a pearl tiara and she carried a white orchid atop a white prayer book.

Mrs. Richard Gazeley served as her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Rosemary McDermott and Barbara Knapp. All of the attendants wore white chiffon sheaths with satin cummerbunds. Their arm bouquets were of long stemmed pink roses.

John Thomsen served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Walter Weiss, Jerry Samuelson and Richard Gazeley.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church. Mrs. John Thomsen was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds then left by car for Washington, D. C. Their new home will be in Arlington, Va.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High school and the University of California at Santa Barbara where she received her BA in sociology. She was active on campus and was affiliated with Chi Omega sorority.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"I Am Catching It From All Sides . . ."

Dear Ann Landers: I handle your copy for the Wichita Eagle. Your advice to the bachelor whose weekend hang-overs were aggravated by the sound of the eight-year-twins playing jacks on the bathroom floor overhead stopped me cold.

You suggested that he give the kids a concrete slab (3 feet square) so they could play jacks in the kitchen.

Ma'm, do you know how much nine square feet of cement weighs? I do, because a few years ago I removed an old sidewalk from our back yard. It almost wrecked my back.

Please, Ann, suggest, instead, three square feet of plywood. The bachelor could pretty it up with paint and make it downright attractive.

—HELPFUL HENRY
Dear Henry: Close on the heels of your letter came a raft of others telling me I goofed. I am catching it from all sides, particularly from building supply people. Yes—I DO know (now) how much a slab of concrete three feet square weighs. If the slab is only one inch thick, the beast weighs 112 pounds.

For my mistake I am prepared to accept punishment which fits the crime. A few lashes with the wet noodle won't do. Perhaps I should walk from Chicago to Wichita carrying a 112 pound slab of cement.

Dear Ann Landers: I just read the column about the G.I. who came home from overseas and found his wife six months pregnant. I liked the way you praised him for forgiving her.

Now, let's turn the tables. If the wife catches her husband at such shenanigans she can haul him into court, take him for all he's worth, oblige him forever and make him support the kids until they're of legal age. When she gets through with him he
